

The Book of Romans

Tuesday Bible Study at St. John Lutheran Church
September 1: More Than Conquerors
Romans 8:31-39

Do Lutherans believe in “once saved, always saved”?

What kinds of things separate us from Christ?

Hebrews 10:26-27 For if we go on sinning deliberately after receiving the knowledge of the truth, there no longer remains a sacrifice for sins, but a fearful expectation of judgment, and a fury of fire that will consume the adversaries.

Romans 8:31

What are “these things”?

What is conditional about Paul’s sentence?

Romans 8:28 And we know that for those who love God all things work together for good, for those who are called according to his purpose.

What hope do we find in these words?

Romans 8:32

What does God’s gift of the Son mean for us? What things will God give us?

Genesis 22:12 Do not lay your hand on the boy or do anything to him, for now I know that you fear God, seeing you have not withheld your son, your only son, from me.

Romans 8:33-34

Who is actually able to condemn God’s elect?

Romans 8:1 There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus.

What does Jesus do at the right hand of God?

Ephesians 1:19-21 and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power toward us who believe, according to the working of his great might that he worked in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly places, far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the one to come.

Romans 8:35-36

What things cannot separate us from the love of Christ?

What example does Paul give? What passage does he quote?

What should we do in the midst of tribulation?

Romans 8:37

What are “these things”?

Romans 5:3-5 More than that, we rejoice in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not put us to shame, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who has been given to us.

What does it mean to be a conqueror?

Revelation 3:5 The one who conquers will be clothed thus in white garments, and I will never blot his name out of the book of life. I will confess his name before my Father and before his angels.

Romans 8:38-39

How many things does Paul list?

What are these things unable to do?

Philippians 1:6 And I am sure of this, that he who began a good work in you will bring it to completion at the day of Jesus Christ.

September 15: Are the Israelites God's People?: Romans 9:1-13